

BUSINESS RECORD

Jeffrey and Lisa Stein, and HGTV's Michael Payne.

Great Neck Decorator and HGTV Celebrity Offer $10,000 Make-Over Prize

Jeffrey Stein, a window fashions decorating consultant and owner of North Shore Décor, is teaming up with celebrity interior designer, Michael Payne, host of HGTV's Designing for the Sexes, to promote the $10,000 Michael Payne Exciting Windows! Makeover Sweepstakes - a national contest open to anyone 18 years or older living in the United States who is currently a homeowner. Mr. Payne is a spokesman for Exciting Windows! - a national network of professional custom window coverings decorators of which Jeffrey Stein is a member.

The winner of this contest will receive $10,000 worth of window coverings for his/her home, compliments of Exciting Windows! Along with a free written de-

Windows! consultant will provide the expertise with measurement and final installation services.

On his show, Payne serves as a "mediator" in helping couples solve their decorating dilemmas. His role with Exciting Windows! promotes his own philosophy of excellent customer service by listening to clients' needs, respecting budgets, providing solutions and delivering beautiful finished products.

There is no purchase or consultation necessary and one Grand Prize winner will be selected randomly when the contest ends in May, 2008. To enter the contest, log on to www.excitingwindows.com and complete the sweepstakes registration by filling out an official entry form. To obtain additional en-